CLOUD-FILLED SKY CREATES MOOD for half-masted flags at Palm Springs Police Department in memory of Police Officer Gail Eldridge, slain by burglary suspect here Wednesday. A Gail Eldridge Memorial Fund Committee formed yesterday, announced projects to benefit the heroic policeman's widow and three children. (P. S. Newsphoto by Russ Tate)

VILLAGE OPENS HEART TO FAMILY

Palm Springs flags rested at half-mast today but citizen concern mounted to a peak as a Gail Eldridge Memorial Fund Committee formed and immediately announced two projects to provide for the slain police officer's surviving widow and three young children.

Eldridge, 32, was cut down by a burglary suspect's bullet while the officer wrestled with the suspect during a Wednesday night investigation here. The funeral has been re-scheduled for the Palm Springs Community Church, at 11 a.m., Monday, in order to accommodate the large number of mourners who knew and respected the heroic policeman.

THE FIRST OF the two events is a huge benefit show to be staged at 2 p.m., Sunday, in the Chi Chi Starlite Room. Virtually every entertainer in the community will be featured in the show which will have Mayor Frank Bogert for a master of ceremonies.

Already committed to perform are Billy Ward and His Dominoes and Evers and Dolores, who comprise the current Chi Chi show; Eddy Howard and His Orchestra, current feature at the El Mirador Hotel; Bobby Ramos and His Orchestra, stars of the Biltmore Hotel; Jeri Sullivan, vocal sensation from the Sportsman; Raul and Gustavo, Hilltop Room mariachis, and a lengthy list of other talent.

The show is being produced by Ace Hudkins with George Laine and is scheduled to continue right up to the Starlite Room's regular 8:45 p.m. showtime if necessary, Hudkins said.

THE SECOND EVENT is a $10 per plate dinner scheduled for

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Charges Dropped Against Hopps

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Charges against six of 12 persons indicted in the $8 million collapse of the Equitable Plan Loan Co., have been dismissed by Superior Judge Martin Katz.

Katz Friday ruled the statute of limitations expired before the six were indicted by a grand jury. Charges were dismissed against: Stewart B. Hopps, San Francisco insurance man and winter resident in Palm Springs; Virgil D. Dardi, New York banker; Joseph L. Seltzer, New York businessman; Walter P. Smith, Inglewood, Calif., and Leon Dreznar, Los Angeles accountant.

CHARGES ALSO were dismissed against Joseph D. Blau of New

Thursday night in the Biltmore Hotel with complete proceeds to be directed to the Memorial Fund. Details on the dinner will be announced Monday.

The assemblage that resulted in the formation of the Memorial Fund Committee heard Police Chief Gus Kettmann declare that while the Police Department was in full sympathy with the already snowballing community drive to provide a fund for the widow, the department could not officially participate in it.

"However," the chief said, "the Palm Springs Police Association — a separate entity — can participate since family welfare among its members is one of the purposes of the organization."

The chief said that the department was "heartened . . . by the offers of help and expressions of sympathy" for Eldridge and his fatherless family.

THE COMMITTEE named former police officer Bob Sandeffer as executive chairman of the Gail Eldridge Memorial Fund Committee and appointed Pat O'Dea and T. M. Aitkin as co-chairmen. Aitkin was also named treasurer and George Laine secretary.

Other committee members include Don Crabtree, Ace Hudkins, Lou Mawby, Sam Levin, Al Yallen, Robert Levin, Larry Perion, Julian Stiff, Leroy Bergener, Henry Roth, Ray Ryan and Clarence Brechlin.

CV Planners Meet Monday

Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee will meet at 7 p.m., Monday, at Desert Air Hotel.

Federal Food Program for Needy Upped

First Executive Order Issued By Kennedy Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy, carrying out a campaign pledge, issued an executive order today for an expansion of the federal program of food distribution to needy families.

This was the first executive order issued by Kennedy as he got to work in the White House office to which he was inaugurated Friday.

THE ORDER directs the Secretary of Agriculture to increase amount, variety and nutritional quality of foods supplied by the government to persons who cannot afford to buy their own.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said that at present the program operates in 1,100 counties and 120 cities and towns in the United States. He said it affects some four million people and is "Particularly important in areas of substantial labor surplus."

SALINGER SAID Kennedy's order would make it possible to expand a program in which he said participating families now receive only flour, cornmeal, rice, dry milk, eggs and lard.

Kennedy, who celebrated his inauguration until 3:30 a.m., est. began his first day in the White House by arriving at his office more or less on time and getting a visit from former president Harry S. Truman.

The new chief executive had called a special staff conference for 9 a.m. but it was late in getting under way as members collected in a large room next to Kennedy's office.

Irving Snyder Succumbs Here, Rite Pending

Private funeral service is pending today for Irving T. Snyder, a 22-year resident of Palm Springs who died yesterday in Desert Hospital. He was 76.

Snyder, a retired mining engineer, was born in Denver, Colo., but came to California 41 years ago. He was ill only a short period.

He is survived by his wife, Caroline S., of 1145 Camino Mirasol here; three sons, Gifford G., Irving G. and Henry Bonnell, of Woodside, Calif., Greenwich, Conn., and Woodside, respectively, and a daughter, Mrs. Adam Musto also of Woodside.

THREE CLASSES GET TO WATCH INAUGURATION

Three classes in Cahulla school were privileged — they got to watch the inauguration yesterday of President John F. Kennedy.

Through efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Marty Kenyon and Frank Allen of Palm Springs Community Television, cable was installed at the school, and a television set was loaned. There was no cost to the school.

During their lunch hour the students also watched part of the inaugural parade.

YOUNGEST ENTRANTS in the Rodeo Parade at 10 a.m., Saturday, Jan. 28, are Kristina Buckheim, left, and Judy Rounkles, who are known as "The Little Westerners" and sponsored by the Los Compadres riding club. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hoby

Rounkles, and Kristina is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Buckheim. Both of the "future Rodeo Queens" are four years old and have been riding horses since they were two. The equine friend on the extreme right is "Doby."

Husband, Wife Killed in Two Car Head-on

A Santa Ana couple were fatally injured, and three other persons were seriously injured in a head-on car collision on Highway 99 in Indio, yesterday.

Mrs. Florence B. Meyer, 75, died at the scene of the accident, and her husband, Andrew, 80, died a short time later at Casita Hospital from injuries suffered in the accident.

SOURIS, Prince Edward Island (UPI) — A school bus marooned in a vicious snowstorm since Friday was located today and the occupants were in good shape.

FOLLOWING SURGERY

Mrs. Robert Allen Succumbs Friday

Mrs. Robert E. Allen, 45, 1650 Paseo El Mirador, died at 6 p.m. Friday, at St. Vincent's Hospital in Los Angeles, following extensive brain surgery. She had been ill for about five months.

The Allens had resided here for five years, moving to Palm Springs from North Hollywood.

WHILE HERE, Mrs. Allen had been active in the Nellie Coffman and High School Parent-Teacher groups, and served as a Girl Scout leader, and a member of

GREENWALD TO BE DIMES CHAIRMAN

Louis Greenwald, an official of the Mattel Toy Company and owner of Jacqueline's, has been appointed by Sheriff Joe Rice as chairman of the 1961 March of Dimes campaign in this area.

With a goal set at $8,000, the campaign will be carried through the next three weeks in an all-out attempt to raise the necessary funds.

Greenwald has started this week in the placement of March of Dimes containers in stores, markets and other business houses and places of recreation.

Greenwald appealed to the people of Palm Springs to make their contributions either in the envelopes supplied by the county association, in the strategically placed containers, or they can be sent to the local chairman at 1530 East Palm Canyon Drive or to Jacqueline's at 401 South Indian.

Plans for a March of Dimes dinner to be held after the Palm Springs Golf Classic are underway and particulars will be released later.

Lions Bid for 1962 Convention

Special to The Desert Sun SACRAMENTO — The 1962 convention of the California-Nevada Lions today appeared headed for Palm Springs as a team of ardent Village Lions extolled the benefits of conventioning in the desert city.

Only Anaheim was yet in the running against Palm Springs and a decision was expected sometime today on the location of the 1962 meeting.

Turnoff Project Work Slated

Construction will begin late this year on a $1.15 million interchange at the Twentynine Palms turnoff of U. S. 99, a state Division of Highways official said today.

Traffic engineer Fred Marshall said the money for the interchange already had been budgeted to eliminate the dangerous level crossing with a sweeping overpass.

ACCIDENTS UP IN 1961 OVER LAST YEAR

Traffic accidents this year are moving ahead of the comparative time for 1960, the Palm Springs Safety Council warned today in an appeal to drivers to use extra caution.

Accidents to date in 1961 are 12, compared to nine in 1960.

Sen. Allott Opposes Robert Kennedy Bid

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's 10-man cabinet won swift Senate approval today. The only opposition expressed was against his brother, Robert, the new attorney general.

The Senate then took up the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson to be U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations, approving him by voice vote with no audible opposition.

NINE OF THE President's cabinet choices were approved by unanimous voice vote. But Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., stood up against Robert Kennedy, charging he "has not had sufficient background in the law overall to qualify him" for the job.

The others quickly shouted through the Senate in order, one by one, were:

Secretary of State — Dean Rusk, 51, Rockefeller Foundation president.

Secretary of Defense — Robert McNamara, 44, former president of the Ford Motor Co.

SECRETARY OF Treasury — C. Douglas Dillon, 51, undersecretary of state in the Eisenhower administration.

Postmaster General — J. Edward Day, 46, West Coast vice president of Prudential Insurance Co.

Secretary of Interior — Former Rep. Stewart Udall, 40, of Arizona.

Secretary of Agriculture — Orville L. Freeman, 42, governor of Minnesota.

Secretary of Commerce — Luther H. Hodges, 62, former governor of North Carolina.

SECRETARY OF Labor — Arthur Goldberg, 52, who resigned as special counsel of AFL-CIO.

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare — Abraham A. Ribicoff, 50, governor of Connecticut.

The cabinet was scheduled to be sworn in at special ceremonies at the White House late this afternoon.

Only Robert's nomination, among the first four considered by the Senate, drew any opposition. He was approved on a standing vote, with only Allott, standing up in opposition.

Allott had announced in advance that he was voting against Robert Kennedy because "he has not had sufficient background in the law overall to qualify him" for the attorney general's job. But young Kennedy was defended by Democrats, including Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee for which Robert Kennedy served as chief counsel.

'Inaugural Day' Blizzard Moves Out to Sea Today

NEW YORK (UPI) — The "inaugural Day blizzard" moved out to sea today, leaving behind mountains of snow and subfreezing temperatures in the northeastern section of the nation.

Drifts of up to ten feet in New York and New England and fierce winds hampered snow removal and snarled transportation.

THE COLD WAVE extended today as far south as Florida where 39 degree temperatures were recorded in Palm Beach. Snow and freezing rains also were reported in Virginia and the Carolinas.

At least 56 deaths were blamed on the storm. Pennsylvania led the toll with 21. New England accounted for 18 deaths, six of them in Massachusetts and four in Connecticut. Others included New York, 4; New Jersey, 5; Washington, D. C., 2; West Virginia, 3; and Maryland, 3.

AMONG THE DEAD were three men in a truck that jumped a barrier and landed in Jamaica Bay here during the blinding snow.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Considerable cloudiness today through Sunday with scattered sprinkles or light showers mainly in south portion. Little change in temperatures. High today 55 to 65 upper valleys 65 to 75 lower valleys.

High yesterday was 74, low 57.

Translator Gets $180, Needs $6,290

Translator Stations yesterday received $180 in contributions, leaving $6,290 of its $15,000 operating expenses for this year to be raised, president Frank Bennett reported.

AT MONDAY MEET

5 Desert Items Set for Board

RIVERSIDE — The Riverside county Board of Supervisors will consider two planning and three miscellaneous matters of special interest to the upper Coachella Valley area during the meeting which convenes here at 9 a.m., Monday.

A recommendation for change of zone from W-2 to commercial frontage and R-3 will be considered in the newly approved Trout subdivision on Highway 111 near Peterson Road. Owner Miss Bobbie Trout requested the change for the 10 acre development.

IN DESERT HOT Springs' Sakin development, the board will consider the recommended change from R-3 to R-1. Sakin requested the change in the development east of Ambrosio Drive between the storm channel and Terrace Way.

Miscellaneous matters on the agenda include:

— RESIGNATION OF Paul Ames as director of the Coachella Valley Soil Conservation District.

— Resolution authorizing installation of one additional light in Desert Hot Springs lighting district; and — Consideration of proposed ordinance regulation private patrol services.

INDIAN AFFAIRS on the Colorado River Indian Reservation were reviewed for Palm Springs Optimists this week during their luncheon meeting in the Tennis Club. From left are Paul W. Hand, business manager for the 250,000 acre reservation; Roy Randolph, president of the Optimists Club; Bud Line, Chamber of Commerce official; Mrs. Eileen Miguel, chairman of the Agua Caliente Tribal Council; Ray Jackson, Agua Caliente tribe area manager, US Bureau of Indian Affairs; and Pete Homer, Parker, Ariz., chairman of the Colorado Tribal Council. Hand, former Indian Bureau official, told Optimists the Indians seek national legislation defining Indian dispute with the Indian Bureau on beneficial usage of the land and 28 miles of Colorado River frontage on the California side. Reservation development is impeded by lack of Congressional definition of beneficial use, Hand said. (Desert Sun Photo)

Mounted Police Present Rodeo Show for Lions

The Palm Springs Mounted Police gave a festive rodeo flavor to the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Palm Springs Lions Club.

The Chi Chi Starlight Room thrived to western music as Warren Coble presented a program of color pictures and western popular music in honor of the Palm Springs Rodeo Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 28-9.

Palm Springs Lions at the Sacramento convention are seeking support for naming this resort city as the state convention site for 1962.

Baha'i to Hear Guest Speaker

Volunteers Cross Over Picket Lines

Citizen Committee Starts Working on Packing Broccoli

EL CENTRO — (U) — Thirty citizens committee volunteers yesterday crossed picket lines at Brawley packing house to begin work packing broccoli.

The volunteers, members of a citizens' committee to harvest lettuce, took over at the packing house for union workers who walked off the job Wednesday in sympathy with lettuce workers striking for a $1.25 hourly wage.

EL CENTRO INSURANCE executive Howard Jackson, who formed the committee, called for more volunteers to help keep farm work going in the Imperial Valley at the height of a $19 million lettuce crop harvest.

Deputies stood by as the volunteers crossed the picket lines at the D'Arigo Bros. packing shed just north of Brawley. There was no violence.

Picketing of individual farms, which began over the weekend at the Bruce Church ranch near Brawley, spread to 12 fields today.

United Packinghouse Workers of America representatives said about 300 domestic farm workers were striking.

GROWERS DISPUTED this figure, however, claiming that many of the strikers went from one job to another, walking off when pickets appeared.

The volunteer workers represented a cross-section of the populace in the valley, a spokesman said.

A union spokesman charged the volunteer workers at the packing house "apparently are trying to provoke an incident with our pickets."

Lab Techs Ready For Crime Talk

SAN BERNARDINO — Anthony Longhetti, director of the San Bernardino Sheriff's Crime Laboratory, will discuss "What Is a Crime Laboratory?" when the San Bernardino - Riverside Chapter of the California Association of Medical Laboratory Technologists meets at 7:30 p.m., Monday, here. The meeting will be held at Di Masi's Villa Restaurant at 934 East Highland Avenue, San Bernardino.

'WHERE DOES TAX DOLLAR GO?'

Cemetery District Tax Low

By ELLEN SAUNDERS
Where does my tax dollar go is a question which is being asked with increasing frequency by the public today.

One answer for the taxpayer who lives within the Palm Springs Cemetery District is that the three cents levied on every $100 assessed valuation of his property by that district goes toward the maintenance of one of the most beautiful parks in the desert area which provides burial space at a rate much lower than that charged by the private cemetery.

THE PALM SPRINGS Cemetery District is one of several such entities in Riverside County created by the State of California under its Health and Safety Code. Its area corresponds roughly to that covered by the Palm Springs Unified School District.

Two burial grounds are located within its boundaries — the Welwood Murray Cemetery situated in the heart of Palm Springs and the Desert Memorial Park located

HIGHLIGHTS OF PRESIDENT'S INAUGURAL IN CAPSULE FORM

WASHINGTON — Selected passages from President Kennedy's inaugural address:

"Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans—born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a cold and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage—and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today."

"LET EVERY NATION know, whether it wish us well or ill, that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend or oppose any foe in order to assure the survival and success of liberty."

"TO THOSE PEOPLES in the huts and villages of half the globe struggling to break the bonds of mass misery, we pledge our best efforts to help them help themselves, for whatever period is required — not because the Communists are doing it, not because we seek their votes, but because it is right."

"TO . . . THE UNITED Nations, our last best hope in an age where the instruments of war have far outpaced the instruments of peace we renew our pledge of support—to prevent its becoming merely a forum for invective—to strengthen its shield of the new and the weak—and to enlarge the area to which its writ may run."

"FINALLY, TO THOSE nations who would make themselves our adversary, we offer not a pledge but a request: That both sides begin anew the quest for peace, before the dark powers of destruction unleashed by science engulf all humanity in planned or accidental self-destruction."

"LET US BEGIN anew — remembering on both sides that civility is not a sign of weakness, and sincerity is always subject to proof. Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate."

"IF A BEACHHEAD of cooperation can be made in the jungles of suspicion, let both sides join in the next task, creating, not a new balance of power, but a new world of law, where the strong are just and the weak secure and the peace preserved forever."

"NOW THE TRUMPET summons us again — not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need—not as a call to battle, though embattled we are—but a call to bear the burden of a long twilight struggle, year in and year out, 'rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation'—a struggle against the common enemies of man: Tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself. Can we forge against these enemies a grand global alliance, north and south, east and west, that can assure a more fruitful life for all mankind? Will you join in that historic effort?"

"My fellow Americans, ask not what your country will do for you—ask what you can do for your country. My fellow citizens of the world: Ask not what America will do for you, but what together we can do for the freedom of man."

Ike Private Citizen Again; Feeling 'Fine'

Ex-President Back In Citizen Role, Lauds JFK's Speech

WASHINGTON — UPI — Dwight D. Eisenhower became a private citizen yesterday. He said it felt "wonderful, wonderful, fine." Ike so expressed himself after John F. Kennedy was sworn in as his successor in the White House.

THE FORMER CHIEF executive and Mamie drove from the inauguration ceremonies at the Capitol to a luncheon with his cabinet and a score of government officials at Washington's exclusive Executive Club.

Arriving at the club, Eisenhower waved his silk top hat to a small crowd gathered to greet him. He was asked how it felt to be a private citizen again, and he replied that it was wonderful and fine.

Asked how he liked Kennedy's inaugural address, he replied "very fine."

EISENHOWER BEGAN his last day at the White House by getting up at 6:15 a.m. and going to work at 7:15 a.m. Because his office was being refurbished for incoming President Kennedy, Eisenhower worked in the cabinet room, dealing with last minute correspondence. He wore a sports jacket, slacks and a gray bow tie.

Eisenhower interrupted his work on correspondence to drop in on several White House offices for farewells to his staff. Then he went to the Navy mess in the basement of the west wing where he had coffee and engaged in chitchat with other White House officials.

NEWS SECRETARY James C. Hagerty revealed that Eisenhower phoned Kennedy about 8 p. m. Thursday and suggested that the Kennedys come to the White House a bit earlier than the scheduled hour of 11:20 a.m., and have coffee with the Eisenhowers in the family dining room before their departure for the Capitol.

COMMIES TO TEST JFK, -- KNOWLAND

SALEM, Ore. UPI — The Soviet Union will test the new Kennedy administration within eight months, according to former U.S. Sen. William F. Knowland of California.

Knowland, currently the assistant publisher of the Oakland Tribune, told a group of Oregon Republican legislators Thursday the test would come in such trouble spots as Berlin, the Far East, the Middle East and the Western Hemisphere, including Cuba.

THE FORMER GOP Senate leader said the Communists know what the policies of the Eisenhower administration have been — but they will probably exert pressure to see how the policies of President Kennedy differ.

"I see no indication that the Kennedy administration would yield," Knowland said, but he warned that the next eight months would be "challenging times."

He said the Communists "want to see how far we can be pushed."

KNOWLAND SAID Vice President Richard M. Nixon still has a position of leadership in the Republican party, but Nixon is not assured of the presidential nomination in 1964. The former senator said he has no plans to seek public office again.

Reading Time 3 1/2 Minutes
"Service With a Smile, In Jan King Style!"

"Most business men need 2 women in their lives—a secretary to take everything down & a wife to pick everything up!"

When a retired Denver builder buys a home it is scrutinized for dollar value! John & Zoella Fredricksen did just that! Sales Director Ross McCutcheon, 584 Farrel Dr., 324-4732 will gladly show u thru the few homes yet to be sold in Jack Meiselman's Alejo Palms Estates.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!! Tommy Pearson (10 years) of 32-660 Whispering Palm Trail, Ray Ryan's El Mirador Hotel has a present 4 u!

My thoughts were pure dazzlement under a Palm Spring's sun as I viewed a new adventure in patio furniture elegance; results of efforts by Charleston's Patio Furniture & Gifts for Ray & M. L. McGee's Tranquilla Villa! Ted, too, was proud of colors & placement of the Brown-Jordan line. (798 N. Palm Canyon Dr. 324-2143)

Hizzoner — Palm Springs (very own) "Honorary Mayor" Bob Hope once made these comments concerning an "Oscar" . . . "I'm only kidding . . . they did give me a special 'Oscar' a few years ago. I can't remember why. I was out of the country at the time . . . maybe that's why!!!! I didn't expect an award the first few years I was making pictures . . . I was new. And I didn't get any awards in '45, '46, '47, '48, '49 and '50 . . . and none in '51, '52, '53, and '54. And I didn't get an 'Oscar' in '55, '56, '57, '58 or '59 . . . I think they're trying to tell me something!!!"

Plaza Motors is an exciting & busy place these days! People ARE taking advantage of Plaza's largest selection of Cadillacs ever — in the history of Palm Springs! Ernie Alschuler took delivery on his 1961 Cadillac this week: a white Fleetwood! C Chris Cracraft & his staff today! (290 N. Indian Ave. 325-2572)

Lucille K. Johnson seriously applies herself to her very important position of Vice-pres. & Controller of Coachella Valley Savines & Loan Assoc. Those 9 yrs. & 15 yrs. with Alaska Fed. Savines & Loan Assoc. prepared Lucille to be Governor of Dist. No. 10 (Calif. Ariz. Hawaii) of the Soc. of Savines & Loan Controllers. (383 S. Palm Canyon Dr. 324-1241)

"PROFILE OF THE WEEK" (or can u identify this person?) is presented by Ray Ryan's El Mirador Hotel . . . in 1931 she managed Bebe Daniels' show in the Village; managed Garden of the Gods Club, Colorado Springs; son grad of P.S. High & Claremont; sister's initials "VF". (c answer in "Recession" elsewhere in this paper)

Voila le International Fashions Shop avec le haut couture le whole world. Copies of Paris creations from 29.95 to the real thing from the Champs Elysee at $295.00, also real capri pants from Capri (where else?) these are pure sole and are tres delicious. See them all at International Fashion Show at Sandpiper Sunday from 1-00, 444 S. Palm Canyon next to Saks.

'Twas Texas Day Golden Door Way! . . . that is, for 7 days last week! Dallas represented by Mesdames John B. Cowden, Jr., W. F. Neale, John H. Rauscher & Bedford Wynne . . . & Corbina Wright from Beverly Hills! (Escondido—Sherwood 5-6621)

. . . last week I told you "Hy" would let u know what "YSHPEARD" means . . . it means YOU SHOULD HAVE YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED AT RAMON DRUG!!! Ramon's as near as your phone! 324-3113—"Hy" has 3 trunk lines so you'll always receive good service & immediate delivery! (454 S. Indian Ave.) "Recession" says: Jan King's Desert Diggins can do but two things for you—dig up new customers & better selections!

"Recession" is Bob Hope's Basset hound, (known for giggling) so is mascot for Jan King's "Desert Diggins" C U next Saturday!

Show Sympathy by Donations

Palm Springs residents this week are joining in offering expressions of sympathy to the family of Gale Eldridge and to members of the Palm Springs Police Department.

The young police officer was killed in the line of duty Wednesday—the first such tragedy to occur in this city since incorporation in 1938.

Normal anger and resentment has been replaced by a desire to help Eldridge's widow and three children, since his slayer also was killed.

A Gale Eldridge fund has been established at the Bank of America following offers of aid from local citizens. There is no better way that sympathy can be expressed than through donations to this fund.

The Big Story--In Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Presidency of the United States is always a success story and, because of its ingredients, the success story of President Kennedy is one of the greatest.

Surprise: This time last year, when the slim, young Senator officially announced his candidacy in the Senate caucus room, with his beautiful, red-dressed wife beside him, few newsmen thought he could possibly make it. The odds against him seemed unsurmountable, even to many who wished him well.

UNIQUENESS: NO other Catholic, no other 43-year-old, no other Senator since Harding has been elected directly to the Presidency. The newness adds wonderment to the story. But instead of treating his religion, youth, and office as handicaps, President Kennedy seized upon each and used each to an advantage. During the campaign you would have thought that the country had expressly called upon the Democratic party to go out and find a youthful, Catholic Senator for the post. All over the country Mr. Kennedy was pointing to himself as just the man to fill the bill.

ACCEPTANCE: SUCH is the grandeur of the presidential office that no man, not even George Washington, escaped the envy and malice of those who "knew him when." One of Washington's subordinate officers, a college graduate, sneered at the great man as being "defective in grammar and even in spelling, owing to the insufficiency of his early education."

When Trumbull's heroic portrait of Washington was unveiled, a contemporary sniffed: "Sir, that is no portrait of a President of the United States, it is a portrait of a man in the Army, stood for Trumbull for that and other figures. Washington, sir, was an ill-made, nap-kneed man."

EXPERIENCE: EVERY man goes into the Presidency as a rookie or cadet. There simply is no place to learn how to be President. It is an on-the-job training position. One hundred years ago there were two American Presidents in office, and there was a war on. One of the Presidents (of the Confederate States) was a West Pointer and a proven commander in the battlefields of the Mexican War.

The other (of the United States) was a backwoods lawyer with only a little Injun-chasing as military experience. Yet, as Professor T. Harry Williams writes in "The Ultimate Decision," a study of Presidents as Commander-in-Chiefs:

"ABRAHAM LINCOLN was a great war president: Jefferson Davis was a mediocre one. No wonder in the history of war is there a better illustration of Clausewitz's dictum that an acquaintance with military affairs is not the principal qualification for a director of war but that a remarkable, superior mind and strength of character are better qualifications."

The Passing of Power: What bitterness has passed between the two men in the revolving door of power? John Quincy Adams would not even be present at Andrew Jackson's inauguration, but heard the "cannon-firing, drum-beating and hurrahing" from a refuge at Meridian Hill, near the Maryland border. Mr. Truman has written for publication of how President-elect Eisenhower gave him the deep freeze in their ride along Pennsylvania Avenue in 1953.

LOSERS WEEPERS: Those who have seen their philosophies as well as their parties and personal ambitions, defeated have often been both bitter and despairing. One of Chief Justice Marshall's worst moments in a long life was when he had to give the oath of office to Andrew Jackson, who was everything of which Marshall disapproved. Henry Clay, another of Jackson's victims, foresaw Old Hickory's inauguration as the arrival of a military dictatorship: "The thunders from the surrounding forts and the acclamation of the multitude on the (March) Fourth (Inauguration Day) told us what General was at the head of our affairs," said Clay in a speech which dealt with South American Generals-into-Presidents.

A new success story every year — but with familiar and recurrent overtones.

—Holmes Alexander

No One Had Greater Incentives

WASHINGTON — No man in the history of the Presidency had greater incentives to be an outstanding chief executive than has John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

If he serves the constitutional limit of two terms, Kennedy will be leaving office eight years hence, this week, at the age of 51, eleven years younger than Dwight Eisenhower was when he attained the office. A third of Kennedy's presumed life span will lie ahead of him. During those long decades as an ex-President he will have to face the music for every error of omission or commission charged against him.

AS THE FIRST Roman Catholic to occupy the White House, he constantly will be under the scrutiny of millions of Americans fearful of the slightest wavering in the nation's traditional stand on separation of church and state. Every move he proposes in, say, education and the care of needy areas, will be examined for traces of religious leanings.

As President, Kennedy will have to answer not only for his own acts in office but those of his countless appointees, large, medium and small. As ex-President, he will be blamed even for events over which he had no real control — as Herbert Hoover was charged with being the chief architect of the worldwide depression of the 1930's.

THE GOOD DEEDS of Warren Harding, and there were some, were wholly overshadowed by the fact that a weak old man in his Cabinet, Secretary of Interior Albert Fall, was a crook, and because his Justice Department was riddled with scoundrels.

The nomination of Robert Kennedy as Attorney General won unexpectedly quick approval in the Senate, where Sen. Erwin of North Carolina good-naturedly diagnosed the nominee's main drawback — his youth — as a malady from which he will eventually recover. But this is not to say that Robert Kennedy will not be on constant trial throughout his tenure in that highly important office, as will be the brother who placed him there and against widespread advice in and out of Democratic circles.

DURING THE campaign, Republican orators made much of the fact that wars have a habit of rearing their bloody heads when a Democrat is in office. Wilson had his World War I, Roosevelt his World War II and Truman the awful business in Korea. It will be President Kennedy's task to stop that skein, though the world is more troubled now and the U.S. a more inviting target than in the times of his predecessors.

He must hold Khrushchev at arm's length, neither threatening the Russian leader or catering to him. He must find a way of living with the break-off of relations with Cuba, with which President Eisenhower saddled him. He must renew our contact with the Cuban people in a manner that will not appease Castro or countenance his intention of turning the island into a menacing Commune.

HE WILL HAVE the difficulty of being called upon now and then by unthinking people to "explain" the acts of suppression that sometimes crop in in so-called Catholic countries, notably Spain. He will be criticized not only for being too chummy with ex-President Eisenhower but for not being chummy enough.

Almost exactly half the people who cast ballots last Nov. 8 preferred Richard Nixon, and while many today are heard saying "I voted for Nixon but I think Kennedy is going to be better," there lingers in their breasts the disappointment which offers fertile soil for criticism.

FOR THESE and other reasons, John Fitzgerald Kennedy can be counted upon to try harder and work longer to be a finer President than many before him. He knows that if he is a bad President, or a faceless reincarnation of a Van Buren, let's say, generations may pass before another Catholic or member of perhaps any other minority in America, is given a chance to prove himself in the White House.

When his paternal grandfather Patrick Kennedy arrived in America a century ago, in the steerage of a foul ship that had carried him from famine-ridden Ireland for $20, "Irish" was a synonym for "Foreigner." Patrick Kennedy saw everywhere in Boston signs reading, "Man Wanted — No Irish Need Apply." Yet Patrick begot a son who today is worth $200,000,000, and that son begot a President, Jack Kennedy will give his all to crown that unique American Dream.

Have gravel, will travel
Seems to be their aim,
And they do at a speed
That's really not tame.

Passing on all of the gripes I receive from the citizenry, I have achieved the cognomen of "Old Grouch."

I really don't mind especially since I overheard that pretty girl in the front office say "grand old grouch."

Some of the others use a more blunt adjective.

ANYWAY, at hand today is a comment from a Villager about fast-moving gravel trucks carrying material to building projects. Could be they have to travel so fast because we are building so fast.

However, this Villager says the speeding trucks are a real menace to life and limb.

"Not only the fact that they might smack into you as they roar down the street.

"BUT THEY ALSO zoom around corners so fast that part of their load spills on the pavement constituting another threat to comfort and safety.

"Plus the fact that women pedestrians and their thin-soled shoes are downright uncomfortable when they step on the spilled debris.

SPRING TRAINING in Palm Springs has brought joy to a lot of baseball players who look forward to coming here to un-kink their muscles for the 1961 American League season with the Los Angeles Angels.

Veterans of many spring training campaigns, they relish the idea of being here where they won't have to hole in because of steady rains and won't run afoul of hot, sticky, humid weather.

IT'S GOING to help our economy, too. Jimmy Cooper, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce had two letters this week. They indicated it must be cold in Pennsylvania.

One was from Bob Davis, pitcher on an Angel contract, from Pipersville, Pa. He wants to bring his family with him when he joins the Angel camp here next month, and asked a report on accommodations.

THE OTHER LETTER was from Ed Sadowski, catcher, from Pittsburgh, Pa. He also wants to bring his family with him when he comes to Palm Springs to join the Angels.

Both men expressed keen anticipation for spring training in Palm Springs and both are expected to be here well before the opening of the training season.

Needless to say, both received full information.

DICK WEST:

Looking at the Budget

WASHINGTON — UP — Like eternity, infinity, relativity and bathroom plumbing, the federal budget cannot be comprehended by the finite mind.

At least, not by the male finite mind.

There may be a few women who can grasp it, with all of its implications and ramifications, but that is only because the female mind is itself an instrument that passeth understanding.

FOR THE REST of us, any lengthy period of contemplating the budget tends to overtax our credulity and undermine our sanity. This statement, I might add, is not based on any abstract theory but on personal experience.

I spent a couple of days this week immersed in the federal budget for fiscal 1962 and I began to get a touch of what the skin-divers refer to as "rapture of the deep."

IN THIS CONDITION, the diver (budget reader) becomes dangerously fascinated by his surroundings and forgets to come up for oxygen. I made it back to the surface just in time.

The budget, as you know, is the product of countless hours of preparation by countless numbers of government workers. No single individual could think of that many ways to spend that much money.

IT IS DRAFTED by the Budget Bureau, which turns it over to the President, who hands it to Congress. The President knows that Congress doesn't want it either, but it gives him some good exercise.

I mean, the budget is not only difficult to understand but hard to lift. The popular paperback edition weighs in excess of four pounds.

There are many ways of looking at the budget: As literature (strong characterization but weak plot), as drama (good opening soliloquy but lacks suspense), and as horticulture (in growing a money tree, the green thumb is not as important as the greenback).

I HAVE BEEN thinking mainly about its dramatic possibilities. There is an abundance of material available in the budget, provided the right medium is employed.

The legitimate theater, I believe, is out. I doubt any modern playwright could adopt it for the stage. Even a Shakespeare would have trouble with the third act.

IT MIGHT BE suitable for one of those wide screen, stereophonic, three-hour movies, if enough extras could be rounded up and if Marilyn Monroe could be persuaded to play the part of the dollar mark.

But the ideal medium, it seems to me, is television. I visualize a series of 90-minute programs called "Playhouse 80,000,000,000." And let's do them live and in color.

Such a show would be almost certain to win an "Emmy" award except for one thing. There might not be enough gold left in Fort Knox to make the statuette.

OFFICIALS GO TO JAIL

All available local officials there will remain behind bars until enough "bail" is raised for the 1961 March of Dimes.

GO BACK OUTSIDE AND WIPE YOUR FEET...AND YOUR PAWS!

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am married to the most selfish man in the world. In all the 15 years we've been married he has never bought me anything just for myself — like perfume, a compact or a nightie. It's always been something we BOTH can use, or something for the house. For my anniversary he brought home a very expensive portable TV. Don't tell me he is being conservative. You should see our garage! It's piled to the ceiling with hunting and fishing equipment. Don't you think a husband who really loves his wife would buy her something personal once in a while?

HURT

DEAR HURT: Not necessarily. Some husbands have absolutely no imagination when it comes to selecting gifts for their wives. Don't sulk. Tell him what's on your mind, and offer to go shopping with him.

DEAR ABBY: How do you cope with a blood relative who is disgustingly clean? She invites people to her home and when they come, she runs ahead of them and rolls up the rugs so they won't get soiled. She has children — 8, 11 and 13 — and she feeds them outside the kitchen window so they won't get her floor dirty. If company comes with youngsters, they also get fed outside. It's no fun to go there. We think she ought to be told. But who should tell her?

A BLOOD RELATIVE

DEAR RELATIVE: A blood relative.

DEAR ABBY: How does a married woman, age 29, cope with a 14-year-old neighbor girl who hangs around her husband constantly?

The girl is as physically matured as I am. My husband happens to be the type teen-age girls squeal over.

He has a workshop in our garage and every time I turn around that girl is beside him. He says she is a "cute kid" and he doesn't mind her hanging around. Some of our neighbors have already passed remarks. I have seen her follow him down our basement and even under the car in our driveway. Is she old enough to cause trouble?

JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: If she's big enough she's old enough. Tell her to find playmates her own age. If she persists in hanging around, join them and form that crowd that three is supposed to make.

Swap Night found everyone in a trading mood at Tennis Club Thursday night . . . and things kept changing hands until everyone was groaning . . . "O no, not THAT again!" . . . As usual there were all kinds of items swapped . . . like a transistor radio that may or may not work (no batteries) . . . ear rings (these were brought by Jolie Gabor) . . . a feather-decorated hat . . . a partially deflated set of balloons and serpents from Thunderbird's New Years Eve party (George Shaw took these) . . . a musical beer mug (this delighted Bob Simon) . . . a battery-powered manicure set . . . and Dick Whiting took home a performing doll . . . which Peggy Christie had her heart set on . . .

Roy Randolph was there helping Joan McManus supervise the trading . . . which always gets fast and furious . . . Gwen and John Costello arrived laden down with knobby looking packages . . . and so did Betty and Ed Dillon . . .

Rosalie and George Hearst (she'd gone out and bought things to swap) were with the Dick Whittings and Pat Raymonds . . . Bertha and Ed Robbin were celebrating their 15th anniversary . . . and took time out from trading activities to accept a candle-light cake . . . and dance the Anniversary Waltz . . .

The Arthur Swansons were thoroughly enjoying the dancing (this retired Navy Captain is a smooth dancer) . . . and so were Jolie and Edmund (Jolie looked like a movie star . . . in an American Beauty satin dress and matching coat) . . . The Pete Petersons, Nancy Holmes with Pierre Bouscaren . . . George Shaw and Russell Richards (art director for California Girl magazine . . . who is checking into the Ranch Club this weekend to do some Palm Springs picture layouts) . . . Virginia Galliano, Lee de Stefano, Ruthe and Louis Williams . . . and more . . .

There was a dance contest . . . with the only requirement that a couple stand motionless the minute the music stopped . . . Five couples were so good at this that the Club gave away five bottles of wine . . .

There was a choice of capon, roast beef and lobster . . . and people were asking the secret of the hollandaise sauce on the zucchini . . . and dessert was a rainbow of sherberts . . .

Everyone's been suggesting this . . . but WAIF is doing it . . . They plan to list "Desert Pet Personalities" (at a dollar a pet) in their WAIF Ball program . . .

The prettiest ball gown . . . that didn't make it to the Inaugural Ball . . . was the one which Marusia made for Jo (Mrs. Phil) Regan . . . It is a violet satin beauty . . . and Marusia worked like a mad hatter to finish it in time . . . but Jo wound up in bed at St. Luke's hospital instead of going to Washington as planned . . . She insisted on Phil going without her and fulfilling their mutual titude of engagements in the Capitol . . . and lay in her hospital bed more concerned about the beautiful ball gown than about the results of her x-rays . . . She's been ordered to bed for an indefinite period . . .

My own disappointment is that now I won't be able to bring you Jo's personal impressions of the Inauguration ceremonies . . . She had promised to keep a diary for me . . .

The Regan granddaughters are unhappy too . . . Manly's little girl Regan exclaimed . . . "Oh, Nan don't send the Ma-roo-sha ball gown back to Washington . . . Mrs. Kennedy might borrow it" . . .

Thursday night was the night they handed out Oscars out at Thunderbird . . . It was a festive night with fabulous costumes . . . See Monday's paper for story and pictures . . .

Bride-Elect Honored at Shower Buffet

An old-fashioned wedding bouquet made of small plastic roses from Italy, each centered with a tiny light bulb, centered the beautifully appointed buffet table, when bride-elect Francoise Sauvageau was honored at a party hosted by Fern Laurance at Imperial Lodge. Inscribed on the cake, which was decorated with an umbrella and flowers, symbolic of a shower, was the name "Francoise." Decorated sandwich loaves were among the other delicacies that made an attractive buffet table.

Premiere First Antique and Decorator Show Wednesday

With the advance ticket sales for its gala premiere earmarked for the Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the first annual Palm Springs Decorators & Antique Show and Sale will open a four day exhibit at the Palm Springs Playhouse, Wednesday evening, January 25, at 7 p.m.

The pre-sale of the $5 premiere night tickets by the Guild, indicates enthusiastic interest on the part of both residents and visitors, according to Mrs. Hilton H. McCabe, ticket chairman. The tickets may also be purchased at El Mirador, at Riviera, at Desmonds or at Chamber of Commerce.

The theme of the show, being produced by Mrs. Helen Pascal, is keyed to the casual elegance that has made Palm Springs famous, and many colorful new ideas will be presented in room settings by leading West Coast interior designers, as well as the foremost decorators in the Palm Springs area. Show will not only feature new horizons in decor but noteworthy exhibits by antique authorities and dealers.

Among designers and exhibitors participating will be Don Badertscher, Jamie Ballard, Maud Christiansen, Arthur Elrod, A. I. D., Bruce L. Danielson, Antone Dalu, N. S. I. D., Richard Gorham, Thomas Ingersol, Edward Dean, Albert Van Luit, Anna Mae Devereau, N. S. I. D., Lucile Webster, Dietz Designs, Rar Things, and Tarot Antiques.

Following premiere night, doors will be open daily from 1 to 11 p.m., through January 29. Tickets at the box office will be $1.50 for adults; 50 cents for children.

Candlelight Ritual to Show B'nai Brith Women's Work

Using the seven lights of the menorah candlestick, each representing an important project, the regular meeting of B'nai Brith Women at the Jewish Community Center on Monday at 7:30 p.m., will feature a charming candlelight ceremony.

The president Mrs. Allen Harris, will narrate the ritual, and as each chairman lights a candle, she will explain her particular project. The whole ceremony has been cleverly incorporated in a novel poem, written by Ethel Goodwin. Taking part in the ritual will be Edith Bogard, Pauline Stone, Rina Hurwitz, Evelyn DeVorzon, Evelyn Tarr, with the president lighting the seventh candle in a re-dedication gesture.

Plans for the Western Jamboree to be held at the Elks Club on the evening of February 12, will be announced at this meeting. Guest tiny light bulb, centered the speaker will be Mrs. Gilbert Denton, Chapter Service Chairman, District 4, B'nai Brith Women.

Following their meeting, the Women will join the Men's Lodge to share in featured entertainment.

Little Squirt

Take a tip from leading restaurateurs who've devised a way to keep lemon juice from squirting on the patrons:

Wrap a strip of sterile bandage around the lemon wedge when serving. The gauze easily conforms to the shape of the wedge, making it easy to handle, too.

San Bernardino Civic Light Opera To Present Musical

SULTRY, CURVY Lori Hilton will be featured vocally with the Bob Laine Duo at Ethel's Hideaway beginning Monday night. Here for a limited engagement, Miss Hilton will warble nightly with the twosome.

IT HASN'T TAKEN long for Eddy Howard, above, and his 15-piece orchestra to capture the fancy of local residents and visitors at Ray Ryan's El Mirador Hotel.

ENDING CURRENT stand at Whispering Waters Hotel this weekend is Marv Jenkins, stellar pianist who operated as part of the Barney Kessel Trio last year. Jenkins Trio leaves after Sunday performance.

SAN BERNARDINO — Outstanding ensemble singing featuring the well known and loved works of Sigmund Romberg will highlight the forthcoming production of "Student Prince" scheduled by the San Bernardino Civic Light Opera Association Jan. 30 through Feb. 4.

Choral rehearsals are already under way, according to choral director, Virgil Camp. Camp has worked with Civic Light Opera for three seasons in the capacity of choral director.

"This all-time favorite, which includes such numbers as the three famous drinking songs, "Deep in My Heart, Dear" and "Serenade" is a family show and holds appeal for an audience of any age group." Camp said. Camp serves as choral instructor for Fontana High School and also holds the position of music consultant for the Fontana School District.

MEMBERS OF THE ensemble for "Student Prince" are Gladys Rainey, Erlene La Roe, Lauretta Rodriguez, Joan Priestly, Maxine Conger, Sally Thomas and Donna Lotze of San Bernardino; Sherry Dalton of Colton; Marlene McPeck of Redlands; Ruby Ressegue of Riverside; Karen Kreuger of Lake Arrowhead.

Jim McMillan, Maurice Costello, Jr., Harold Gramlich, Jack Henley, Paul Kealy, Warren Flath, Alfred Smith, Michael Payne, Jim Treadway and Jim McPherson of San Bernardino; Al Harcraft and Roger Lewis of Colton; Jim McIntyre of Crestline; Roy Russell and Horst Wandell of Fontana; Don Williams of Riverside; Ronald Knowles and Barney Travis of Rialto. Travis will also sing the role of Detlef in the show.

Tickets are also available at the following locations: The Harris Company, San Bernardino, Riverside and Redlands; Mrs. Paul Craik in Crestline; Mrs. J. C. Collins in Corona.

AND IN CHURCH, TOO

Tyke Paint Class Begins

A painting class for children, taught by prominent local artist Christine Ranes, is being added to the curriculum of the Unitarian Church School for the winter quarter.

The instruction will begin at Sunday morning's 10:30 a.m. session and will be held at Mrs. Ranes' home at 682 Bedford Drivd.

Registrations are being accepted for all classes in the new quarter. Parents who are interested in a liberal religious education for their children, age four to 12, are invited to contact the Unitarian church school chairman, Mrs. Robert Schnabel at 325-3428.

For this new quarter, instruction will continue in science, literature and world religions. These sub-

AFTER SUN-SET

Ferralls Open Up With Stars Galore

By GEORGE LAINE

The second season of the Ferralls' Playhouse at Deep Well — 14 weeks of stellar dramatic presentation — gets underway Tuesday at the theater with Francis Lederer joined by an all-star cast in "Marriage Go-Round," the very unusual Broadway surprise.

Although it is only the second season for the Deep Well operation, the Ferralls are actually entering into their ninth year of dramatic presentation here and bring to their audiences a well-rounded mixture of the best in current comedies and dramas combined with some favorites from yesteryear.

THE OPENING SHOW is about as strong an opener as I've ever seen in stock — and a good deal stronger than some I've seen in the so-called straight-run houses.

It brings together four remarkable talents in Lederer, Jan Clayton, Anna Lisa and Michael Ferrall. It is one of the strongest actor lineups, from point of sheer competency, that has been assembled in this city since I've been here.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA-BORN Lederer is a three decade star in stage and screen presentations, a giant in repertoire whose efforts have ranged from Sophocles to Cole Porter and have spanned six languages.

A prolific writer and an astute director, Lederer takes over the directional chores for "Marriage Go-Round," freeing Mike Ferrall to pursue his own role in the play and also to work on casting future productions.

Striking in his appearance, Lederer cherishes among his famous first the initial presentation of stage plays on television. He was co-founder of the "Hollywood Television Theater," the forerunner of all of today's dramatic TV shows.

JAN CLAYTON almost didn't make "Marriage Go-Round." The day after it completes its six-day run here Jan rushes back to Hollywood to begin taping her own new TV show. She nixed a chance to take over top billing in "Sound of Music" in order to accept the TV offer.

Last seen here in "Once More, With Feeling," the show that opened last year's Palm Springs Playhouse Guild season, Jan brings a monumental amount of experience, jam-packed into a few short years, to her "Marriage Go-Round" role. (She played the role of Julie in "Carousel" on Broadway, followed that with parts in "Show Boat" revival and "Blossom Time."

ANNA LISA is a relatively new Swedish import. Of statuesque proportions, she has an almost Bergmanlike quality about her, has already made a sharp impression on TV audiences through her appearances as Nora Travers in the "Black Saddle" series for Four Star.

Although "Marriage Go-Round" marks her American stage debut, Anna Lisa (whose real name is Katrin Svep) has studied drama since age seven, worked in one of Oslo's leading repertory theaters, performed in musical comedy and also toured with a French drama group.

MICHAEL FERRALL needs an introduction in the same manner I need another club to cover. It's simply unnecessary to go into detail about the variety of roles the man has played, the versatility of his approach.

The challenge of working with such persons as Lederer and Clayton and Anna Lisa is one that certainly appeals to Ferrall.

FRANCIS LEDERER

JAN CLAYTON

ANNA LISA

MICHAEL FERRALL

You can expect some superlative work from him in the play.

Of course, you can also expect a superlative wedding of talent when this foursome gets onstage. I wouldn't miss it for anything and I'd advise the rest of you to make plans now to see "Marriage-Go-Round."

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: The benefit for deceased policeman Gail Eldridge at 2 p.m., Sunday, in the Chi Chi figures to present almost every top entertainment act in Palm Springs — plus the regular Chi Chi show. . . . Don't miss it. . . .

Mason Takes Case for Civil Servant

Old Greenbacks Stolen from Car, Murder Follows

Civil servant Ralph Duncan goes to Perry Mason for help after someone plunders his car of $135,000 in old greenbacks from an estate inventory in "The Case of the Fickle Fortune" on "Perry Mason" Saturday, Jan. 21, CBS Television Network, 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Mason suspects a forged will when a fortune in the same kind of old currency, totaling $148,000, is left to Albert Keller, a CPA.

THEN A CLIENT of Keller's, businessman Lloyd Farrell is stabbed to death and the missing $5,000 in greenbacks is found in his home. Duncan, caught at the slaying scene, is accused of the murder and Mason defends him.

Raymond Burr stars as Mason.

FEATURED AS regulars are Barbara Hale as Della Street, William Hopper as Paul Drake and Ray Collins as Lt. Tragg.

DON BRAGG, Olympic Games gold medal winner, left, and C. K. Yang, Olympic silver medal winner at Rome, are interviewed by Sportscaster Gil Stratton, center, before the Los Angeles Invitational Indoor Track Meet. Bragg, pole vault winner at Rome, and Yang of UCLA, who finished second in the Olympic decathlon for Nationalist China, will compete in the meet, which will be presented on "The Sunday Sports Spectacular" Sunday, Jan. 22 (CBS Television Network, 2:30-4 p.m., p.s.t.).

GEORGE GOBEL TO MAKE TV COMEBACK IN NEW SERIES

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD — George Gobel, the toast of television four years ago and a video stepchild this season, will make a comeback next year with a new situation comedy series.

"Lonesome George" had planned to star as a madcap bachelor living it up with beautiful girls. But his advisors told him his public image was that of a much-married family man. This plus a nudge from his wife Alice, convinced George to eschew the bachelor bit.

FEATURED AS regulars are Barbara Hale as Della Street, William Hopper as Paul Drake and Ray Collins as Lt. Tragg. Others in the cast include Helen Brown as Mrs. Hollister, Vaughn Taylor as Ralph Duncan, Virginia Christine as Helen Duncan, Robert Casper as Charley Nickels, Liam Sullivan as Lloyd Farrell, Eve March as Nurse Hamilton, Philip Ober as Albert Keller, Connie Cezon as Gertrude, Lee Miller as Sgt. Brice, Berkeley Harris as the patrolman, Michael Fox as the autopsy surgeon.

"I'LL PLAY A real sucker of a guy who gets into all kinds of trouble helping his friends," the diminutive comedian said.

"And one thing I'm sure of — a situation comedy will be a cinch compared to that live show I was doing. We needed four separate ideas for the old program.

"THERE WAS A monologue, sketch and lead-ins for the girl singer and guest star. Now I just need one basic idea per show."

George's own Gomulco Productions will film the pilot for the new series next month. But George has to hustle. Next fall he is opening on Broadway in "Three Men On A Horse."

SAN FRANCISCO — Miss Julie Fisher and the city of Palm Springs are today's winners of KGO Radio's "Salute to A City" contest.
For submitting today's best entry on "why I like my home town," Miss Fisher will hear her 50-word statement read on KGO Radio throughout the day on Wednesday, Jan. 25, and will receive a cash prize of $5. Miss Fisher lives at 1223 San Lorenzo Road, Palm Springs. |

Norma Crane, Gregory Are Guest Stars

James Gregory and Norma Crane are guest stars when a judge is threatened with death at the hour set for execution of a man he has sentenced in "Hour of the Execution" on "Checkmate" Saturday, Jan. 21 (CBS Television Network, 8:30 - 9:30 p.m.).

Anthony George, Doug McClure and Sebastian Cabot star, respectively, as Don Corey, Jed Sills and Carl Hyatt — Checkmate, Inc. — who race against time to learn the identity of Judge Addison's potential killer.

James Gregory plays Judge Addison. Norma Crane plays Abbie Addison, the judge's wife, and Virginia Gregg plays Ethel Addison, his sister.

Larry Kerr plays Johnny Messico, the condemned convict. David Garcia plays Paul Messico, Johnny's brother. Robert H. Harris plays Matt Coleman, a detective, and Barney Phillips plays Captain Howard.

Others seen are Sid Clute as Leo Cox, Frank Sully as the postman, and Cy Malis as the guard.

BARBARA BILLINGSLEY

Television Mother Really Isn't a Square, Is Mother

By JOE ST. AMANT
United Press International
HOLLYWOOD — Barbara Billingsley is a platinum-haired slick chick who knows all the answers — about childhood problems — but she plays the part of a "square" as a television mother on the "Leave It To Beaver" show.

Miss Billingsley has been through it all with two sons of her own — Drew, 18, and Glenn, better known as Bud, 16. They are older than her TV sons, Jerry Mathers, 11, who plays the part of Beaver, and Tony Dow, 15, who is Wally.

"I like the show," she said. "I've been on it for four years. I guess I'd be lost if I started wandering around other Hollywood studios again. I like coming to work here. You know everyone . . . things work very smoothly. I think everyone has to find a niche."

MISS BILLINGSLEY'S contentment seemed to pervade the entire cast and crew on the set at Revue Studios.

Jack Benny Is Loser at Cards, Does Housework

Jack Benny loses at cards to Rochester and is forced to do household chores while his Man Friday takes the day off on "The Jack Benny Program" Sunday, Jan. 22 (9:30 - 10 p.m.), on the CBS Television Network.

But Jack employs Rochesterian subterfuge to pass on his tasks to Don Wilson, who in turn also catches on and unloads them on Dennis Day.

The show was produced and directed by Norman Abbott and written by Sam Perrin, George Balzer, Al Gordon and Hal Gold-

Two of the old-timers who have worked on the Gomco Production since its beginning are assistant director Hazel (Zimmie) Ammer and Hazel Resmonth, stand-in for Beaver.

"I'VE WATCHED Jerry (Mathers) grow up," said Zimmer like a contented grandpa. "One reason why this show is so popular is because it offends no one."

Miss Resmonth, a former dancer who is only 4-feet-4, has to don high heels now to stand in for Beaver while technicians set the lights on the show and perform other chores. "I started out wearing flat heels," she said, "so you can see how he's grown."

MISS BILLINGSLEY said parents and ministers write in to discuss child psychology in relation to the show.

"They all seem to approve of us," she said. "There's always a moral to a story, but it doesn't hit you in the eye."

All this sweetness and light could become boring, it was pointed out, but Miss Billingsley hastened to cry in typical Mother Beaver fashion. "Oh, we do have a villain — Eddie Haskell — we love him, he's wonderful, you just hate him, he's a great villain."

ROAD RACES START AT AIRPORT TODAY

Banning Beats Tribe 49-43 in Thriller

JUST WHAT the doctor ordered, said Dr. Cary Middlecoff, noted golfer, as Ed Vines, Bermuda Dunes golf pro, left, tells him. Middlecoff, who has been off his game lately, asked Vines to analyze his trouble. Vines discovered that Middlecoff was moving his head off the ball on the backswing. The fault remedied, Middlecoff is now at Pebble Beach in the Bing Crosby Clambake and doing better. (Gayle Studio Photo)

HAL DOUNIS, left, will be succeeded tonight at the banquet of the Los Angeles region of the Sports Car Club of America as regional executive by Jim Peterson, right. Awards to winning drivers of 1960 will be presented at the banquet.

THEY'RE OFF AND ROARING

18th Race Program Under Way Today

Sports cars starting roaring at Palm Springs Airport at an early hour today as the 18th annual Palm Springs Road Races, traditional start of the racing season on the West Coast, got under way with safety inspections, practice drills and qualifying rounds.

The day started at 7 a.m. when safety inspections of cars and course began.

At 9:30 a.m., all of the drivers assembled for final discussion of the program and a review of the rules of the Sports Car Club of America which, with the Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce, is sponsoring the event.

PRACTICE SPINS were on the program at 10 a.m. and concluded at 12:45 p.m.

Then, after a brief rest, real racing got under way at 1 p.m.

Today's eight-race card is designed to pick grid positions in the start of tomorrow's final races. Racing Sunday gets under way at 10:30 a.m. with the sixth and eighth races, both 20-lappers, the double main events.

WARM UP RUNS will start at 9 a.m. tomorrow and be closed at 10 a.m.

Two Palm Springs High School exchange students will be honored at the race meet. Antoinette Van Riet of Netherlands is the race queen and will present the trophies to the winners.

Jean Louis Scoffie of Nice, France, is the honorary race marshal.

Dale Harris is race chairman for the co-sponsoring Junior Chamber.

TONIGHT, starting at 7:30 p.m., the regional division of the SCCA will hold its annual meeting at the Desert Inn.

Prizes will be awarded the 1960 champions and new officers installed.

Jim Peterson will succeed Hal Dounis as executive and other board members installed.

A record crowd is expected for the races.

Shipp Resigns

MONTREAL, IPI — Ken Shipp, an assistant coach for the Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four football conference, has resigned to reenter college coaching.

Broncos Defeat Indians in Final Minutes, 49 to 43

Abron Evans of the Banning Broncos swished through six points in the last two minutes of play last night to break a 43-43 deadlock and enable the visitors to defeat Palm Springs Indians 49-43 in a Desert Valley League game here.

The defeat left the Indians in the cellar with an 0-3 record.

Spencer Carr of the Broncos was high for the evening with 21 points. Tyrone Taylor of the Indians had 17 and Mark Edwards, 13.

THE BANNING BS also won, defeating the Papoose outfit 51-39.

The game was a close one all of the way with the Tribe holding a one-point lead, 27-26 at half time. Banning pulled ahead in the third period but the Indians tied it up with the game nearing an end. Then Evans started his six point spree which ended it.

IN OTHER GAMES last night, Yucaipa took undisputed lead in the DVL, whipping Coachella 59-50. Indio downed Twentynine Palms 50-29.

Yucaipa is now 3-0, Coachella and Banning, 2-1; Indio 2-1, Palm Springs and Twentynine Palms, 0-3.

Friday Night's score:

Tramview Leading In Volleyball Play

Tramview Trailer Park leads the Palm Springs Interpark Shuffleboard Tournament with 20 wins, 10 losses at the halfway mark in the play.

PALM SPRINGS GOES ON THE AIR TODAY WITH RACE, CLASSIC

Palm Springs will be on the air this afternoon on the radio KNX SportsScene starting at 1:05 p.m.

Direct reports from the Palm Springs Road Races and from the Bing Crosby tournament at Pebble Beach are scheduled.

In the latter, Arnold Palmer, leading 1960 pro, and Fred Waring and George Gobel will be interviewed regarding the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic Feb. 1-5.

Collins, Kroll Tied in Crosby Tournament

PEBBLE BEACH (UPI)—Bill Collins, a smiling red-head from Crystal River, Fla., was in the driver's seat today for the third round of the $50,000 Bing Crosby National Pro-Amateur golf tournament.

Although tied with Ted Kroll of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., after 36 holes, each with 135 scores, Collins already has survived the tests at Pebble Beach and Cypress Point and draws the easier Monterey Country Club course for the next 18 holes.

Meanwhile, Kroll must play Pebble Beach—a course that has doomed the ambitions of many a fine golfer. Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif., who is in second place with a 136 score, also must play rugged old Pebble.

The first two rounds of play found perfect weather for the first time in the 20-year history of the Crosby tournament. The result is that at the end of 36 holes, 42 have cracked par—compared with a best of 20 before for the same distance.

Collins and Kroll led the par-busting group with their nine-under-par efforts. Bill has 67-68.

Schoenoff Heads Aquatic Program At Salton Marina

A former East German youth who succeeded in crossing into West Germany, thence to Alberta, Canada and, this past year to the Salton Sea, now heads the expansive aquatics program at the Salton City Marina.

An outstanding athlete in Germany, Horst Schoenoff, an expert water skier and instructor, topped his aquatic sports training under the guidance of the North American Ski Champion, John McCallister of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, according to Dean Cline, operator and manager of the Salton City Marina.

Like countless other German youth caught up in the aftermath of war, Schoenoff obtained his education attending university night classes in East and West Germany, received training and experience in mechanical fields, and upon his arrival in Canada turned to his natural and adept interest in aquatic activity.

Seeking a climate where year 'round water activity is stressed, Schoenoff was selected by the Marina to organize and direct its newly developed aquatic program which includes, skiing, swimming, fishing, boating, recreational and competitive water sports for all ages.

TWO LOCAL RACE enthusiasts, Tony Merino, in an Austin Healey, and Dr. R. S. Bertrand, in a Devin Special, will be in today's and tomorrow's road races. Above they pose with the 1916 Peugeot which won the Indianapolis 500-miler that year. The car is on exhibition at Palm Springs Imports.

PALM SPRINGS second annual Golf Classic received wide publicity today when 25 white Thunderbirds, official cars for the event, were delivered. En route to Palm Springs they visited Riverside, San Bernardino and other points to call attention to the Classic. Above, Holmes Tuttle, transportation chairman for the event, poses with one of the courtesy cars for tournament officials, contestants and members of the press.

Season Tickets Now on Sale for All Angel Games

Season general admission tickets, good for all practice sessions, squad games, major and minor league exhibition games, played by the Los Angeles American League Angels at the Polo Grounds, are now on sale for $25, the committee in charge, headed by Lew Levy and John Seamans, said Friday.

The tickets are available here at Crestview Hotel, Desert Inn, El Mirador, Larry's Dug Out, Ramon Drug, Racquet Club, Riviera Hotel, Ocotillo Lodge.

THEY ARE ALSO available outside of Palm Springs at Cathedral City by Bert Lamb; Desert Hot Springs, John Red Kean and Cliff Babin, in the Hi Desert area, John Haskell; at Rancho Mirage by Danny Callahan, Bill Brubaker; at Palm Desert by Hal Kapp and Phil Franklin and in Indio by Buster Adams, Andy Svengi and Walter Wright.

Individual game tickets are also obtainable at many places.

THE COMMITTEE announced these as The Barn, Palm Springs Bowl, Beck Brothers and Sportsman's Center in Palm Springs; Sun Air Drug in Cathedral City; Buccino Liquors in Rancho Mirage; Palm Desert Pharmacy in Palm Desert and the Outdoorsman in Indio.

The Angels will arrive Feb. 25 and the season tickets will entitle the holder to all of their practice sessions as well as the 11 home games scheduled.

Mickelson Plans To Quit Baseball

MILWAUKEE, IPI — The strikeout leader of the Pacific Coast League in 1960 has decided to give up baseball because he doesn't "like the travel."

Noel Mickelson, 26, acquired by the Milwaukee Braves from Portland, has told his new club he plans to enroll at the University of Oregon in March to study for a master's degree rather than try out with the Braves at Bradenton, Fla.

Rigby Is Winner

BRISBANE, Australia, IPI — John Rigby, a member of Australia's Olympic swimming team last year, won the 400-meter freestyle event in 4:30.5 in the Queensland swimming championships Friday night. Rigby's time clipped 1.2 seconds off the Queensland record for the event.

Motorcade Publicizes Second Golf Classic

Second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic, scheduled for Feb. 1 to 5, received Southern California-wide publicity Saturday when a motorcade of 25 identical white Thunderbirds toured the San Bernardino Freeway leading to Palm Springs.

The cars, all bearing the official insignia of the Palm Springs Golf Classic and driven by 25 girls attired in identical outfits, were being delivered to the Classic for use by golfers, tournament officials and newsmen during the 90-hole tournament.

EN ROUTE to Palm Springs the motorcade stopped at Riverside for luncheon and a welcoming ceremony headed by mayor Ed Dales and other city officials. From Riverside, it will proceed to San Bernardino for another ceremony headed by mayor Ray Gregory of the Gate City and other civic officials.

From San Bernardino the cavalcade is scheduled to head directly to Thunderbird Country Club where Eric Stainton, president, will officially accept the Eisenhower Trophy, unveiled at a meeting in Los Angeles Monday, on behalf of the club which was the scene of last year's final round of the Classic, won by Arnold Palmer.

THE EISENHOWER TROPHY will occupy a place of honor in the clubhouse until Sunday, Feb. 5, when it will be taken to Tamarisk Country Club for the finals of this year's Classic and presentation to the winner of the world's richest and longest tournament.

The day started this morning at 8 o'clock when Mayor Frank Bogert, Joel Stone, Chamber of Commerce president, and the chauffeurs were air-lifted from Palm Springs airport in a group of private planes owned by Robert McCulloch, Leonard Firestone.

Larker Signs 1961 Contract

LOS ANGELES, IPI — Norm Larker, batting star of the Los Angeles Dodgers last season, and outfielders Willie Davis and Tommy Davis have been signed for the coming season. Vice President and General Manager E. J. "Buzze" Bavasi announced today.

Larker, who fought it out with Dick Groat of the world's champion Pittsburgh Pirates to the final day for the National League batting crown, was believed to have received an increase of around $7,000 this year, boosting his salary to an estimated $25,000.

Wilma Rudolph Heads Field

LOS ANGELES, IPI — Wilma Rudolph, queen of the women's sprinters, will be the headline attraction tonight when many of the world's top track and field stars take the boards in the second annual Los Angeles Invitational indoor track meet.

The willowy Wilma will be competing for the first time since the Rome Olympic Games, when she captured three Gold Medals for the United States. Because this is her first meet since the Rome games, the Tennessee A & I star will participate in only one event, the 60-yard dash.

"What Is Truth?" Asks Scientists

"What is Truth?" is a vital question to be considered in the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" in all Christian Science churches Sunday. The Psalmist sings, "O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles. . . I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth" (43:3, 57:2, 3).

REV. WALTER H. REUNING

Reuning to Start DHS Lutheran Church Services

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — First Lutheran church services to be conducted as the start of a church here are scheduled for 8 a.m., Sunday, in quarters at the corner of West Drive and Granada.
A Sunday school with classes at 9:15 will be established in the near future.
Serving the church will be the Rev. Walter H. Reuning, pastor of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Palm Springs, which is sponsoring the new church along with the Mission Board of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.
Rev. Reuning has served the Palm Springs church since July of 1956. For three years he also was pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church of Twenty-nine Palms.

Loyalty Sunday For Community

The Community Church of Palm Springs will observe Loyalty Sunday at its morning services Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m.
The newly elected elders will be ordained and the trustees and elders both will be recognized in their assumption of office for the coming term. Dr. James Blackstone has chosen for the subject of his morning sermons "The Man God Can Use."

Theological Education' Is St. Paul Topic

Dr. Barnhill Will Turn Podium Over To Divinity Student

Theological Education will be the theme at all services Sunday in St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church. Following the pattern being adopted throughout the National Church, Berry Verdi, a student at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley will be the speaker at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services of Morning Prayer.
He will assist the rector, the Rev. Dr. Fredrick A. Barnhill, at the 8 p.m. celebration of the Holy Communion.

VERDI IS A MEMBER of St. Augustine's Parish in Santa Monica and a candidate for the priesthood under the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles. He will describe the progress and growth of the Church Divinity School and challenge the congregation to help with the school's support.
The Church School meets each Sunday during the 9 o'clock service with Mrs. Clarence Brechlin as director. The Adult Class follows the service with Dr. Barnhill as the teacher.

THE HIGH SCHOOL Episcopal Young Churchmen meet Sunday evening in BlondenHouse with president Bill Rutledge presiding. Plans are being drawn up for a District Rally of Episcopal Youth early in February, at which time the Rt. Rev. Charles Alfred Voegeli, Bishop of Haiti, will be the principal speaker. Bishop Voegeli will be visiting in Palm Springs for several days, staying at Smoke Tree Ranch.

SPEAKERS AT THE 7:30 p.m. service at the Community Church of Palm Springs will be the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Jones, who have served as missionaries in Africa since 1932.

CHURCH WILL HEAR MISSIONARY PAIR

The Rev. and Mrs. Harold Jones, missionaries in Africa since 1932, will be featured speakers at the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday at the Community Church of Palm Springs.

Rev. Jones will bring the message, illustrating the work that is being done there with slides. Besides supervising the Print Shop and Book Room in Ouagadougou, West Africa, he has established and supervised the construction of mission stations, churches and other buildings.

They have three children, all serving as missionaries in Africa.

'God's Voice' Topic for Indio's Trinity Baptists

INDIO — "Hearing God's Voice Today," will be the subject of the Rev. George Gulian at the Trinity Baptist Church of Indio at 11 a.m., Sunday.

The text for the sermons will be taken from First Corinthians 1:4-9. Dean Halsey will sing a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Marshall Cardiff.

Sunday Bible School begins at 9:45 a.m. Supt. Ray Parsons states there is a Sunday School Class for every member of the family.
Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., Rev. Gulian will continue his series from the Book of Genesis. The sermon, titled, "Noah's Ark," will be taken from the sixth chapter of Genesis.

and plan to return to their work there in the near future.
On display at the church will be native curios and samples of African literature.

CC Community Church Officers To Be Installed

CATHEDRAL CITY — Newly elected officers of the Cathedral City Community Church will be ordained and installed at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday.

The Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor, will deliver the message, "This Is Our Hour," using as his text "The prayer of a righteous man has great power in its effects" — James 5:16b.

The Chancel Choir will sing "Rejoice in the Lord Alway" by Purcell.

Sunday School will be held at 9:30, and a nursery is provided for the worship service.

At 4 p.m. a Vesper Organ Recital will be presented at their new location at 38-088 Chaparral Lane at Terrace Road. Harry Tomlinson, church music director, will be featured organist on the church's new Baldwin 5A organ.

The public is invited to attend.

CV Christian in Women's Day

INDIO — Women's Day will be observed this Sunday at the Coachella Valley Christian Church, Avenue 50 at Jackson. Speaker at the 11 a.m. service will be Mrs. Lyall Coates, State Christian Women's Fellowship president.

Mrs. Coates will speak on the subject, "Attempt Great Things — Expect Great Things." Assisting in the service will be several of the women of the church, Mmes. Lowell Weeks, Richard Blackburn and Gifford Price. Serving as ushers will be Mmes. Lester Cox, William Elliott, John Graham and Louis Hoeflin.
Child care is provided during the worship hour.

Nonchalant, Almost

ADKINS, Tex. (UPI) — Carl Center was nonchalant, almost, when his wife had twin girls, Sharon Lynn and Caron Gwen.
It was just over three years ago the couple had their first set of twins, James and Jerry. "On the first ones, I fainted," Center confessed.

Alpine Village Maps Approved

A 640-acre Record of Survey tentative map for a development north of the Palms to Pines highway was approved by the Board of Supervisors this week on recommendation of the planning commission.

The legal description of the property is Section 29, Township 6 South, Range 5 East. The lot size is approximately one acre, a total of about 600 lots. The subdivider is All American Investment Co. of Pasadena. The tract designation is Palm Springs Alpine Village No. 3.

Important Meet For NPS Church

NORTH PALM SPRINGS — At the 11 o'clock service of the Community Church of North Palm Springs, Rev. Dwight Hall will preach on "Our Pilgrim Heritage."

At 6 p.m., the church will have a covered dish dinner. At 7 the annual meeting of the congregation will be conducted.

This meeting will be of special importance because a vote will be taken determining if this church will become a member church of the "United Church of Christ" which has now been formed by the uniting of the Congregational-Christian Churches with the Evangelical and Reformed Churches.

'Spirit' Is Topic For PD's Church

PALM DESERT — The regular morning worship services will be held at the Palm Desert Community Church Sunday, at 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

Preaching at both services, the Rev. William A. Dunlap will speak on the subject, "The Fullness of the Holy Spirit." Miss Judy Jorgensen will offer the solo, "Consider the Lily," accompanied by Mrs. Paul Stillman, organist, at the 11 a.m. service.

China Famine Brings No Aid From Kremlin

LONDON — UPI — Communist China's famine is assuming alarming proportions and there is no sign of appreciable Russian help, diplomatic sources have reported. They said the Chinese Communists, through a mixture of pride and political considerations, have not appealed for aid and the Kremlin has not offered it.

THE DIPLOMATS SAID the agricultural catastrophe which has befallen China has dealt a severe blow to its ambitious plan for a big leap forward that was to bring it into the front rank of industrial powers.

The Russians, having agricultural troubles of their own, may have shipped some wheat directly to some Chinese distress areas, but there is no indication of organized help on a large scale.

PEIPING'S OFFICIAL press has only hinted at the details of the famine but diplomatic reports say the situation is grave and millions of people are facing near starvation.

Vice Premier and Foreign Minister Marshal Chen Yi has conceded publicly that Red China is faced with the "biggest natural calamity since the founding of the people's republic."

Date Festival Will Feature Date Products

Fairground Trees Will Be Barren During Festival

INDIO — There will be plenty of dates and date products at the National Date Festival and Riverside County Fair at Indio but no fruit on the stately palms which landscape the grounds. The 10-day festival runs Feb. 17 through 26.

REGINO DIAZ, grounds supervisor, said that this year's crop will produce more than $2000 in revenue for the Date Festival. During the event the big date garden will be used for parking automobiles. Diaz estimated his crew will have all the fruit picked in about two weeks.

Although Festival visitors won't get to see the huge date clusters they can enjoy picnic lunches in a picturesque date garden near the main entrance. Twenty-six different varieties of dates were planted here by the United States Date Experimental Station in Indio. All are original imports and include such exotic names as Goudy, Tadala, Tozer, Zaid, Khala, Maktoom, Amhat, Shalsa, Deglet Noor, Beida, Fursic, Khadrawy and others.

MASSIVE DATE exhibits will be located in the new Taj Mahal building. These will include entries by communities, Chambers of Commerce, granges, and date producers.

Visitors will be able to take home dates, date chutney, date jam and jelly, date butter, date nut bread, date cake, cookies, pies, confections, and while on the grounds enjoy date shakes and malts.

County Is Urged To Attach Fee to Easement Halt

It was suggested this week to the Board of Supervisors by County Counsel Ray Sullivan that in cases where private property owners request the vacation of public utility easements they should be charged on the basis of cost. The supervisors called for a study and recommendation by the administrative officer.

Sullivan said that in recent months there have been an increasing number of public utility vacation requests. He said such actions are of considerable cost to the county.

It was during a discussion of a proposed vacation of easements in a subdivision of El Dorado Palms near Indian Wells that Sullivan raised the question of costs. A hearing was set on the El Dorado easement abandonment for Feb. 14 at 10 a.m.

Castro Halts Mass Trials

HAVANA — Premier Fidel Castro has suspended mass military trials of "terrorists" in an apparent good will gesture to incoming President Kennedy.

The decision was disclosed today to United Press International after two more "terrorists" were executed before firing squads this morning. 10 others were sentenced to 30 years each in prison and three to nine years.

Rebels Attack Pro-West Forces

VIENTIANE, Laos — Communist-supported rebels attacked pro-Western forces at the strategic road junction of Sala Phou Khoun Monday, it was reported today.

Pro-Western and Communist sources differed as to the outcome of the battle.

Economy With Status

On the sunny side of the valley, up out of the wind, only 15 minutes out of Palm Springs, is a unique community of economy minded but discriminating week-end and retired home owners. A private estate open only to owners and their guests, (a feature usually only found in expensive developments). The existing 20 homes are owned by doctors, engineers, college faculty members, retired business executives and contractors. You may build your home or buy a 2 bedroom, 720 to 800 sq. ft. home for $4,998 to $5,900. There is no need to buy a costly lot. Use the new safe recorded 99-year lease plan. ¼ acre lots, utilities, good FREE TV only $12 a month. Use your capital to build. Save ½ the cost of your home, better economy, more privacy than a trailer. Save the cost of your home out of park rents. For FREE DETAILS write or drive out Ramon Road to:

RECEIVING THE Silver Trumpet Award for the second consecutive year in Western Hotels operations from S. W. Thurston, left, chairman of the board, is Dewey Metzdorf, vice president and general manager of the Oasis Hotel. The award for promotion was made during a four day session of Western Hotel managers and other executives in Seattle.

COUNTY CONTROL OF STREETS DUE

At the instigation of Supervisor Norman Davis the preparation of an ordinance to give the county control over street improvements in Record of Survey developments was ordered by the Board of Supervisors this week.

Under the state subdivision act the county cannot require that streets in Record of Survey developments, of which there are many in Riverside County, be improved to county standards. They can only control drainage.

County Counsel Ray Sullivan reminded the supervisors that they had deleted a section of the new county subdivision ordinance designed to provide imposition of street requirements in Record of Survey developments.

On the House

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — An Oakland liquor store owner and a friend "scotched" the attempt of two gunmen to hold up the A and B Liquor Store.

Willard Wright, 60, and Frank Strathdee, 62, chased off the rifle carrying bandits by pelting them with whiskey bottles from a shelf behind the counter.
